

THE ALCHEMY OF LEADERSHIP invitation to renewal

at Wanha Satama, Pikku Satamakatu 3, Helsinki
26.5.2011 at 14:30 – 19:00

*What kind of leadership enables the release of creative power in individuals and organizations?
What is a happy and productive organization made of?
What happens when a leader stops and listens?*

The event brings together experienced leaders and coaches, who have extensive experience and knowledge but feel there is something more, a missing ingredient to take them and their organization to another level. The session includes presentations and work in small groups or pairs, facilitated in co-creative spirit by the In Tune™ group.

SPEAKERS & FACILITATORS

Richard Barrett is Author, Speaker and Social Commentator on the evolution of human values in business and society. He is the creator of the New Leadership Paradigm learning system and the internationally acclaimed Cultural Transformation Tools®, which have been used to support more than 3,000 organizations and leaders on their transformational journeys in more than 50 countries. He is a visiting lecturer at the Consulting and Coaching for Change, leadership course run by the University of Oxford Business School. Richard is a Fellow of the World Business Academy, and former Values Coordinator at the World Bank.

Peter-Paul Gerbrands: “The work that I do, is best described as social innovation: adding awareness responsibility and social intelligence to where people organize themselves.” Peter-Paul is a leadership and organizational transformation coach who has had a counseling praxis in Delft, Holland and London, UK, for 25 years. He helps leaders and organizations understand the patterns behind the problems in order to re-arrange the streams of work, communication and cohesion by using the natural paths that are already there in the fabric of the organization.

Jani Tikkanen is a Network Entrepreneur, Leadership Coach and Author of books “Love leading people and companies” and “Growing love - 112 insights to leadership”. He has over 10 years extensive experience in international management consulting, developing partnership networks, facilitating strategy processes and change management. His vision is that world will be a happier place, when human performance and leadership skills have a solid grounding in love instead of fear. His personal mission is to catalyst new thinking i.e. facilitate and enable growth, so that individuals can flourish in their unique and best possible way.

Markku Wilenius is Author, Speaker and Professor of Futures Research at the University of Turku and runs his own consultancy on organizational development. He is involved in new venture businesses and 3 foundations. As Senior Advisor to Allianz SE, Economic Research & Corporate Development, he headed the trend assessment and strategy work at 2007 – 2010. He has lead numerous strategy and development processes in organizations and research projects around technology, economy, culture, climate change and media.

In Tune Group consists of four entrepreneurs Harriet Fagerholm, Sarita Vahtera, Katja Vilponiemi and Monica Åberg, working together to promote and enable aware and creative renewal in personal and organizational development.
